

SUBATOMIC PHYSICS RESEARCH INSTITUTE

STATUS REPORT

<http://nucleus.usask.ca/spin/>

Mission: The promotion and facilitation of research in pure and applied subatomic physics and related disciplines at the University of Saskatchewan

Goals and objectives of the centre: 1. to provide a focus for subatomic physics research, and 2. to facilitate communication with external agencies, researchers, and prospective graduate students.

Types of activities undertaken to achieve mandate: Research, graduate and undergraduate student training (particularly through research opportunities), public outreach

Governance:

The Institute Members elect an Institute Representative (spokesperson), who will serve as the contact person for communications between the Institute, University, external agencies, and general public.

Attach the current membership of the director, executive, and any advisory bodies.

Spokesperson: T. Steele

- M. Benmerrouche, Adjunct Professor
- J.D. Bergstrom, Professor Emeritus
- H. Caplan, Professor Emeritus
- R. Dick, Professor
- M. Ghezelbash, Professor
- R. Igarashi, Research Science and Adjunct Professor
- R.E. Pywell, Professor
- C. Rangacharyulu, Professor
- T. Steele, Professor